

The AWHONN Education Committee is proud to offer you a valuable conference experience. Join us for two days of rejuvenation, education and networking with your colleagues. Consider attending to fine tune your skills in intrapartum, women's health & neonatal nursing care. This is a great opportunity to hear nationally recognized presenters covering topics relevant to today's healthcare professional. Course handouts, continental breakfast, refreshments and lunch are all included.

Parent & author Amy Kuebelbeck will be available on Thursday for a book signing and discussion regarding her book Waiting with Gabriel, a memoir about prenatal diagnosis, continuing a pregnancy, and embracing a baby's life. Books available for purchase on-site.*
