

Department of Pediatrics
Division of Neonatology

PRESENTS

Neonatal Hospice Care Program

MARCH 10, 2011

9:00 AM to 1:00 PM

The Neonatal Hospice Care Program proposes a medical and nursing plan of care addressing the unique and complex needs of infants diagnosed with lethal conditions and their families

RSVP by: Monday, January 31, 2011

Please email: yem2001@columbia.edu or call: (212)305-8500

Neonatal Hospice Care Program

Date: Thursday, March 10, 2011

Time: 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM

Location:

Columbia University Medical Center - WINTERGARDEN
Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital of NewYork-Presbyterian
3959 Broadway New York, NY 10032

[For Directions go to: <http://nyp.org/facilities/morgan-stanley.html>]

Program

9:00am: Breakfast

9:30am:

- Richard Polin, MD – Welcome
- Elvira Parravicini, MD – Why a Neonatal Hospice?
- Frances T. McCarthy, MS RNC – Guidelines of newborn care in a Neonatal Hospice Care Program

10:30am: Break

10:45am:

- Dorothy Smok, MD – Obstetric approach in a Neonatal Hospice Care Program
- Michelle Angeline, RN FNP – Guidelines of perinatal care in a Neonatal Hospice Care Program

11:30am:

- Amy Kuebelbeck, MA – A gift of time: Continuing a pregnancy when a baby's life is expected to be brief

12:30pm: Light lunch

The workshop is supported by a generous gift from the Hsu family