

Fourth Annual Orange County Women and Children's
Palliative Care Conference
Thursday, Jan. 29, 2015

Join us at an educational conference for health professionals working in the Neonatal ICU, Perinatal Care and Pediatrics.

Attendees will learn more about the importance of communicating and collaborating as a team when working with families experiencing a loss of a pregnancy, baby or child.

Topics include:

- Communication Dos and Don'ts
- Cultural and religious perceptions of grief
- How to take a team approach
- Community resources
- Self-care activities

Keynote Speaker: Amy Kuebelbeck

"A Gift of Time: Supporting families who continue pregnancies with a life-limiting prenatal diagnosis."

Amy Kuebelbeck is a freelance writer and former reporter and editor for The Associated Press and other news organizations. She is lead author of A Gift of Time: Continuing Your Pregnancy When Your Baby's Life Is Expected to Be Brief (Johns Hopkins University Press, 2011). She described her own experience of continuing a pregnancy with a life-limiting prenatal diagnosis in her memoir Waiting with Gabriel: A Story of Cherishing a Baby's Brief Life (Loyola Press, 2003). She is also the editor for the website PerinatalHospice.org, and a frequent speaker at medical conferences.
